6.46 JOHN LAWSON & AGNES BELL McINDOE

continued from 5.16.1 and Volume I, 5.3.2, FGF 109

6.46.1 John Lawson (30) was baptized on the 27th of March, 1842 at Kirk Braddan. Sometime before 1861 he moved to Liverpool for in the census of that year he is shown as living with his uncle, John Lawson (474), and his family at 79-81, Netherfield Road. He was working as an apprentice baker, a trade he followed for the rest of his life. He is listed in the 1881 census as a "master baker employing 1 assistant". John married Agnes Bell McIndoe on the 12th of November, 1872 at the Islington Presbyterian Church in Liverpool when he was described as a bachelor and baker of 9, Gregson Street, West Derby. His father is listed as Robert Lawson, joiner. The witnesses were James Lawson (John's younger half-brother) and M. Pickering.

The 1881 census shows the family living at 7, Gregson Street, West Derby. John is described as a "master baker employing 1 assistant" (Albert England, 17, who resided with the family). John is described as a baker on the marriage certificate of his eldest son, John McIndoe Lawson and as a baker (deceased) on the marriage certificate of his other son, William Lawson (21). This would indicate that he died sometime between the 29th of August, 1903 and the 23rd of November, 1904. However, so far the only (unverified) reference found is for the first quarter of 1902 (ref: West Derby, 8b 222, March 1902).

6.46.1.1 Agnes Bell McIndoe (31) was born on the 16th of December, 1843, in The Gorbals, Glasgow, the daughter of Robert Muir McIndoe and Agnes Dixon. She married John Lawson on the 12th of November, 1872, at Islington Prebyterian Church, Liverpool. In 1925, a widow, she emigrated, with the family of her daughter Maud, to North Palmerston, New Zealand, where she died on the 25th of April, 1929.

21 William	A 24th Mar 1876	West Derby

6.47.1 John McIndoe Lawson (84) was born on the 24th July, 1873 at 7, Gregson Street, West Derby. He married Mintie Burstall (85), an actress and elocution teacher on the 29th August, 1903 at the parish church, Liverpool. John's address is given as Belmont Road.

The 1881 census shows him living with his parents at 7, Gregson Street, West Derby. In 1901 he was living with his mother at Walton-on-the-Hill when his occupation was given as "professor of music, vilolinist" They had four children:

Eric Lawson (90), Colin Lawson (91), Mintie Lawson (93) and Dorothy Lawson (92). All the children are believed to have been born in Birkenhead.

- 6.47.1.1 From the marriage certificate, Mintie Burstall (85) was born in circa 1876, the daughter of Frederick Hampton Burstall (74), a cathederal organist, who was alive at the marriage. Her address was given as Beford Street. She died circa 1947 probably in Birkenhead.

The 1881 census for 2, Saltoun Terrace, Poulton cum Seacombe, Cheshire shows Frederick H Burstall aged 30 and his family. Frederick is shown as a proffessor of music and born in Liverpool. His wife, Martha Wilson Burstall is aged 21 born in Harrington, Cumberland. Mintie is show as aged 4 and born at Old Swan, Lancashire.

- 6.47.2 William Lawson (21) was born on the 24th of March, 1876 at 7, Gregson St., West Derby. His birth certificate indicates that the birth was not registered until 2nd of June, 1881 on the authority of the Registrar General. No reason is given for the late registration. He married Lilian Amelia Baker (see Volume I, 3.8.1) on the 23rd of November, 1904, at St. Paul's, Birkenhead. William is described as a bachelor and Shipping Clerk. His age is given as twenty-eight and his address as 100, Belmont Road, Liverpool. The witnesses were Walter and George Baker (the bride's brothers) and Agnes Maude Lawson, the groom's sister. William died on the 20th of January, 1954, aged seventy-seven, at 12, Heathbank Road, Birkenhead, at which time he was described as a Private Secretary (retired).

The 1881 census shows him living with his parents at 7, Gregson Stret, Wst Derby. William and Amelia began their married life at 1, Gregson Street, Birkenhead. The 1901 census shows him living with his mother at Walto-on-the-Hill when his occupation was givne as "commercial clerk". A good singer, he met his wife through an operatic/choral society. Played snooker. Dabbled in photography - he is known to have used colour photography before 1920. Was Company Secretary to the White Star Shipping Line with offices in the Liver Building in Liverpool. Returning ship's captains presented him with many mementos of foreign parts [is this where Babs and the tropical birds came from?]. Rose to high rank in the Freemasons. Family anecdotes indicate that Lilian (16) was not his daughter, though he recognised her as such in every way up to her twenty-first birthday when she was summarily dismissed from the home. Norah Lawson (15) was always considered his favourite, and when she died in 1919, just before her thirteenth birthday, William was devastated. When, in the following year, his beloved elder brother, John (84), committed suicide, William suffered a mental breakdown. He left his home and was missing for eight days, finally appearing on the doorstep of an old school friend in Llangollen. Apparently he walked from Birkenhead to Llangollen. Although he recovered to some extent, he was never completely normal again. Kept a pet chimpanzee around 1925, which lived with the family. The chimp, Babs, was taken to the Isle of Man on a summer holiday when the family rented a cottage at Braddan. At one time he turned a bedroom into a tropical aviary and amassed one the best collection of tropical birds in England. At some time in the late 1920s or early 1930s William and Lilian separated.

- 6.47.3 Agnes Maud Lawson (86) was born on the 7th of February, 1883, at 7, Gregson St., West Derby. The 1901 census shows her living with her mother at Walton-on-the-Hill. At the time of her marriage in 1912 she was described as a "society entertainer". She was living at 18, India Street, Glasgow, when she married John Oswald Telford at 109, Bath Street, Blythswood, Glasgow on the 7th of March, 1912. Her death has not yet been traced.

The family, together with Maud's widowed mother, Agnes Bell McIndoe (31), emigrated to New Zealand in 1925, settling in Palmerston North. Agnes Lawson's (McIndoe) death certificate of 1929 makes mention of a daughter aged 39 years and a son aged 47 years. Maud would have been 46 at the time of her mother's death and her brothers would have been even older. Possibly the ages on the certificate refer to Maud and her husband, John Telford (who would have been around 40 at the time), and were recorded in reverse order.

A search by Francis Stewart of the New Zealand records has not produced a death for Agnes Telford nee Lawson. It is possible that the family returned to Scotland after the death of Agnes's mother and son. A search of the Scottish death records has not yet been made.

- 6.47.3.1 John Oswald Telford (87) was born circa 1888, probably in Fife, Scotland. He was the son of Robert Telford, a draper, and Helen Oswald. He married Agnes Maud Lawson at Blythswood, Glasgow, on the 7th of March, 1912, at which time he was described as a draper and living at 37, High Street, Inverkeithing. The family emigrated to New Zealand in 1925. He appears to have settled in Palmerston North and in the summer of 1929 was living at 133, Fitzherbert Avenue. The city directory indicates that he continued his trade as a draper. His death has not yet been traced.

A search by Frances Stewart of the New Zealand records has not produced a death for John Telford. It is possible that the family returned to Scotland. A search of the Scottish records has not yet been made.

6.49.1 Lilian Lawson (16) was born on the 9th November 1905. Although having a normal childhood, she was summarily dismissed from the house by her father, William (22), on her twenty-first birthday with the comment that she was no longer his daughter. Family gossip maintains that her father was Frank Redman.

Lilian left for Canada in 1929, settling in the Montreal area. She set up as a hairdresser and kept a rooming house. On the 29th August 1931 she married Frank Lewis (20) who was born on the 11th of January 1901 at Birkenhead. She pursued a career in the beauty salon business, rising to high regard in the Holt Renfrew stores. Her husband, Frank, died in 195.. Lilian continued to live in the Notre Dame de Grace area of Montreal until 1978 when she moved to Beaconsfield. She died in a nursing home in Pierfonds, Quebec, on the 13th May 1991.

6.49.2 Norah Lawson (15) was born on the 2nd November 1906. She died on the 29th October 1919, just three days short of her thirteenth birthday, from the effects of cancer.

She spent some time in Sweden with one family. During the war she worked in the Foreign Office, during which time she met Fred Wray. At the time, Fred, a Roman Catholic, was married and unable/unwilling to get a divorce. He was an expert fish-fryer from the North of England. Fred and Helen lived as man and wife for the rest of their lives. Initially they settled after the War in Welling, Kent but shortly moved to Southend-on-Sea, Essex. For many years they lived at 5 Eastern Esplanade in an apartment above a Fish & Chip shop in which they worked (Clarke's later Bailey's). There was one son, Michael (362), who was born in 1946 and did not survive infancy. Helen suffered for many years from severe deafness and, in the last three or four years of her life, progressive blindness. She died in the early hours of the 3rd of July, 1995, at Southend-on-Sea.

6.49.3.1 Frederick Stafford Wray (19) was born on the 6th October 1896 in Leeds, Yorkshire. He is believed to have married and had two daughters before meeting Helen during the Second World War. No details of this first marriage are available. He died in the third quarter of 1976 in Southend-on-Sea (ref: Southend, 9, 2197, Sept 1976).

6.49.4 William Lawson (13) was born on the 28th of July, 1916, at Birkenhead. He married Isabel Agnes Kinrade on the 9th of August, 1936, at St. George, Douglas. He died on the 28th of June, 1981, at Toronto, Ontario. See 3.1.1 for further details.
