Corkish Family Tree

I.1 JOHN CORKISH—1595

I.1.1 John Korkish (5634) was born circa 1595 at Rushen. He married Jane Taylor circa 1620. See 1.2 for details of his descendants.

I.1.2 Jane Taylor (5923) was born circa 1595. She married John Korkish circa 1620. She died in 1659–60. Her Will states her name as “Jane Taylor alias Korkish”. This appears to be an early convention by which the maiden name was stated followed by the married name. See 1.2 for details of her descendants.

The Will of Jane Korkish names 7 children, a daughter-in-law, a grand-daughter Joney and a grandson, John. This grandson would appear to be the John Corkish (see 1.3.1 below) that moved to Kent and made a claim in October of 1716 for the balance of his inheritance from his grandmother. This would indicate that he was born before the end of 1659 and that consequently his father was born no later than 1640.

Number & Name		Type & Birthdate	Place/Notes

5927	John	C 1638
5928	Mary	C 1640
5929	Catherine	C 1642

NOTE: The birth order has not yet been definitely established, but it seem likely that Henry was the eldest son if not the eldest child. He appear to be the only child who was married at the death of his mother in 1660.

I.2.1 Henry Corkish (5635) was born circa 1620. He married Joney Maddrell circa 1650. He died in 1715. His Will states that he was from Balla Corkish and there is a burial of Harry Corkish on the 11th of January, 1715, at Rushen. See 1.3 for details of his descendants.

His Will mentions his sons John (living in Kent), Henry (Harry) and Richard and his daughter Margaret who was married to Thomas Gell with three children Margery, John and Jony.

I.2.1.1 Joney Maddrell (5922) was born circa 1630. She married Henry Corkish circa 1650. She was mentioned in the Will of her mother-in-law Jane Taylor, above.

I.2.1.1.1 The name of her father has not been established but her mother was Jane Corkish. She died in late 1699. Her Will mentions her children Richard, Margaret, Joney and John, her grandson Thomas Watterson, her brother John and Kathrin Qualtrough and Chris: Karran.

I.2.2 Jane Corkish (5924) was born circa 1632

I.2.3 Margaret Corkish (5925) was born circa 1634

I.2.4 Ann Corkish (5926) was born circa 1636

I.2.5 John Corkish (5927) was born circa 1638

- 1.2.6 Mary Corkish (5928) was born circa 1640. She married Thomas Quork circa 1665. She was buried at Malew on the 6th of January, 1699–1700.

Her Will mentions her husband, Thomas, and children Jane and William, both of age.

- 1.2.7 Catherine Corkish (5929) was born circa 1642.

1.3 The Children of Henry Corkish & Joney Maddrell

Number & Name		Type & Birthdate		Place/Notes
5874	John	C	1655	Rushen
5641	Joney	C	1658	Rushen
5930	Henry	C	1660	Rushen
5638	Richard	C	1662	Rushen
5639	Jane	C	1664	Rushen
5640	Margaret	C	1666	Rushen

Note: The birth order has not yet been definitely established. It is known that John was alive in 1660.

- 1.3.1 John Corkish (5874) was born circa 1655. He moved to Kent. He was a beneficiary under the Wills of his grandmother, Joney Taylor, and his father. On the 23rd of October, 1716, John Corkish of Kent enters a claim for goods due to him under the Will of his grand-mother, Jane Taylor alias Corkish. The claim is for one fourth of the estate. Mentioned in his mother's Will.

- 1.3.2 Joney Corkish (5641) was born circa 1658. She was named in her mother's Will of 1699 together with Thomas Watterson. She was not mentioned in her father's Will of 1715. However, a granddaughter, Margaret Waterson, is mentioned in the Will which may indicate that Joney had married and was then dead.

- 1.3.3 Henry Corkish (5930) was born circa 1650. He was not mentioned in the Will of his grandmother in February of 1660 which probably means that he was not yet born. He is presumed to have farmed at Surby, to have married and had at least one son, Henry. See 1.4 for details of his descendants.

- 1.3.4 Richard Corkish (5638) was born circa 1662. He married Jane Harrison on the 14th of June, 1718, at Rushen. He died on the 28th of March, 1728, and was buried on the 4th of April at Rushen. See 1.45 for details of his descendants.

He was mentioned in his mother's Will. His Will names his three children Harry, Richard and Catherine. As they were underage at his death, brother Henry and sisters Joney and Margaret were appointed supervisors.

- 1.3.4.1 Jane Harrison (5642) was born circa 1665. She married Richard Corkish on the 14th of June, 1718, at Rushen. After the death of Richard she married a second time to William Harrison on the 29th of July, 1732, at Arbory. She was buried at Arbory on the 23rd of July, 1745. See 1.45 for details of her descendants.

William Harrison married Jane Corkish (als Harrison) on the 29th of July, 1732, at Arbory. He was not mentioned in his wife's Will of 1745. Possible burial 3 Nov 1743 at Arbory.

- 1.3.5 Jane Corkish (5639) was born circa 1664. She seems to have died before 1728 as she is not mentioned as a supervisor to her niece and nephews on the death of her brother Richard in 1729.

- I.3.6 Margaret Corkish (5640) was born circa 1666. She married ... Gell. Three of her children, Margery, John and Joney, are mentioned in the Will of her father in 1715. She is mentioned in her mother's Will of 1699. This means she married probably no later than 1710.

1075 Henry	C 1675	Rushen

- I.4.1 Henry Corkish (1075) was born circa 1675, probably in the parish of Rushen. He is known to have farmed at Surby Moar. He is presumed to have married (though the name of his wife has not yet been determined) as his Decree of 1760 mentions his two children. A wife is not mentioned and is presumed to have pre-deceased him. He died in 1759 and was buried on the 2nd of September at Rushen. See for details of his descendants.

I.5 The Children of Henry Corkish & ...

Number & Name	Type & Birthdate	Place/Notes
1076 John	C 1700	Rushen
5989 Joney	C 1705	Rushen

- I.5.1 John Corkish (1076) was born in the parish of Rushen in approximately 1700. He married firstly Mary Cottier on the 5th of February, 1725, at Rushen and secondly Isabel Costain (see I.3.7) on the 16th of December, 1732, at Rushen. This also was a second marriage for Isabel. He was appointed joint administrator of his father's estate in 1760. John died in 1775 and was buried at Rushen on the 27th of August. See I.6 and I.8 for details of his descendants.

The Will of Mary Cottier, February 1731, records the names of her three children, all underage. (Did she die in childbirth?) Three supervisors are appointed for the children, namely John, Ann and Margaret Cottier, presumably her brother and sisters. Margaret Cottier was married to Thomas Taylor. In May of 1732 the supervisors agreed that the goods of Mary Cottier should be placed in the hand of the father, John, who gave as pledges his own father, Henry Corkish, and Edward Waterson.

The marriage contract between John and Isabel Costain confirms the name of John's father, Henry. The fact that no mention is made of Isabel's parents would indicate that they were dead at this time.

- I.5.1.1 Mary Cottier (4770) was born circa 1700. She may have had a brother, John, and sisters Ann and Margaret, as these three names are mentioned as supervisors to her children at her death. Her parents have not yet been identified. She married John Corkish on the 5th of February, 1725, at Rushen. She died on the 18th of December, 1731, and was buried the next day at Rushen. See I.6 for details of her descendants.

- I.5.2 Joney Corkish (5989) was born circa 1705. She married John Cubbon on the 15th of July, 1727, at Rushen. She was appointed joint administrator with her brother of her father's estate in 1760 but relinquished her rights to her brother.

- I.5.2.1 John Cubon (5990) was born circa 1705. He married Joney Corkish on the 15th of July, 1727, at Rushen.

- I.6.1 Patrick Corkish (4771) was baptized on the 12th of January, 1726, at Rushen. He did not survive childhood. He is mentioned in his mother's Will of 1731 so was presumably alive at her death, but there is a note in her inventory that one of the children had died and part of his funeral expenses were debited to her estate. A burial has not been found at Rushen.
- I.6.2 John Corkish (4772) was baptized on the 28th of August, 1729, at Rushen with his twin sister. It is likely that he grew up with his Corkish grand-parents as there is a note to his mother's Will that his legacy was placed in the hands of his grand-father.
- I.6.3 Margaret Corkish (4773) was baptized on the 28th of August, 1729, at Rushen with her twin brother. It is likely that she was brought up with her brother by her Corkish grand-parents. She married Ewan Qualtrough on the 16th of July, 1757, at Rushen. Margaret Qualtrough was buried at Rushen on the 20th of August, 1766. See 1.7 for details of her descendants

He married firstly Esther Shimmin (see 23.4.5) on the 3rd of December, 1805, at Rushen, and secondly Catherine Harrison (see 10.4.1) on the 31st of October, 1837, at Rushen. He died, intestate, in 1855 and was buried on the 30th of June at Rushen. See 1.10 and 1.19 for details of his descendants.

It seems likely that Christopher fathered two children with Catherine Harrison before their marriage, see 1.19. and 1.47.

In 1841 he was a weaver at Surby. At the 1851 census he and his wife were farming eight acres at Surby. Living with them was a niece Catherine Tugdale aged 2. She was actually a grand-daughter and is so rcor ded in 1861, see 1.30.2

A petition by his son, William, calling for William Bell to be appointed administrator of the estate mentions the widow Catherine and the children Patrick, Catherine, Thomas and Henry. The eldest son, John, was living in Douglas at this time. The youngest son, Richard, was still unmarried and probably working as a farm labourer in Arbory or Rushen. Neither are mentioned in the Petition.

- 1.9.5 Jane Corkish (259) was baptized on the 12th of March, 1780, at Rushen. She married John Costean on the 23rd of August, 1800, at Arbory. - 1.9.6 Margaret Corkish (260) was baptized on the 15th of December, 1782, at Rushen. She married John Woods on the 21th of September, 1809, at Rushen. She was buried on the 14th of May, 1854, at Arbory when her age was given as seventy-one years. See 1.32 for details of her descendants.

In 1841 she appears to be a widow living with her her daughter, Ann, at Water Lane, Douglas, where she was employed as a washerwoman. The census of 1851 shows her as a widow aged sixty-seven years, living in School Lane, Castletown, on parish relief.

- 1.9.6.1 John Woods (273) was born circa 1788. There is a baptism for John the son of John on the 25th of March, 1788, at Arbory. He married Margaret Corkish on the 21st of September, 1809, at Rushen. He died before the census of 1841 and there is a burial on the 30th of April, 1826, at Arbory for a John Woods. See 1.32 for details of his descendants.
- 1.9.7 John Corkish (261) was baptized on the 13th of November, 1785, at Rushen. He was a tailor and married Ann Cooil (see 10.13.1) on the 4th of November, 1809, at Rushen. The 1841, 1851 and 1861 censuses show the couple living in Port Erin. He was buried on the 6th of March, 1864, at Rushen. See 1.33 for details of his descendants.

See also 2.8.2 below.

- 1.9.8 William Corkish (212) was baptized at Rushen Parish Church on the 23rd of November, 1788. He was confirmed on the 10th of August, 1803 at Malew Church by Bishop Creggan. He married firstly Margaret Parks on the 18th of August, 1810, at Malew and secondly Isabella Simpson on the 4th of September, 1841, at Santan. He was buried at Rushen on the 28th of April, 1853. See for further details.

- 1.9.9 Elizabeth Corkish (262) was baptized on the 16th of January, 1792, at Rushen. She married Henry Taylor on the 19th of June, 1823, at Rushen, see Volume II, 2.5.5. By early 1851 she was a widow, living in Surby and working as a farm labourer. There is a burial for Elizabeth Taylor of Surby aged 68 years on the 21st of July, 1858, at Rushen. See Volume II, 2.6 for details of her descendants.

- I.19.1 Henry Corkish (5036) was born circa 1816 in Rushen, see 1.47 for further discussion. He married Catherine Kegg on the 28th of September, 1862, at Rushen. He died on the 11th of February, 1883. See 1.20 for details of his descendants.

He has not been identified in the census of 1841 or 1851. He fathered a son, Thomas (see 3.5.1) in 1858 by Jane Quayle, see 21.27.2. In 1861 he is found living with his unmarried sister at Surby, Rushen. At this time he was described as a lead miner. In 1881, a widower, he was living at Ballakneale with his three youngest children and employed as an agricultural labourer. His age was given as 55 years. In 1891 he was living at Ballachrink, German when he was described as a farmer and his age given as 63 years.

- I.19.1.1 Catherine Kegg (6123) was baptized on the 28th of March, 1830, at Rushen, the daughter of William Kegg and Margaret Corrin. In 1841 she was living with her parents at Shenvalley, Rushen (rus-2-63). In 1851 she was keeping house for her widowed father (now listed as a fisherman) and her younger brother William at Cregneish. In 1861 she is still keeping house for her father (now a farmer of 6 acres) and her brother (a fisherman). Living with them is Thomas Gale aged one year (? Catherine's illegitimate son). There is a burial for William Kegg aged 71 from The Sound on 7th of July, 1866. Catherine was buried at Rushen on the 5th of September, 1879. See 1.20 for details of her descendants.

- I.19.2 Catherine Corkish (2085) was baptized on the 12th of January, 1823, at Rushen, according to the IGI. However, as her parents did not marry until 1837 and as Christopher's first wife did not die until 1835, it seems that there may be a mistake in the IGI entry.

Catherine appears to have had at least four illegitimate children. She has not been identified in the 1841 or 1851 census. In 1861 she was living at Surby when she was employed as an agricultural labourer. Two of her children were living with her (another was living with her mother). She has not been identified in the 1871 census. See 1.30 for details of her descendants.
